vessel's crew.

The USCGC Tampa boarding team, homeported in Portsmouth, Va., intercepted the vessel suspected of smuggling illegal drugs during a counter-drug operation off the southern coast of Haiti.

With the need for 100 percent space accountability, the vessel was escorted to GTMO for docking and boarding.

The team along with local personnel proceeded with the daunting task of unloading the ships contents by hand. They coordinated their activities with investigators from Homeland Security, the State and Justice Departments with help from USCG District Seven while meticulously searching every inch of the ship.

After a thorough search of the vessel, no contraband was discovered. While presenting the award, Mehling commended the recipients on a job well done and their continued professionalism and dedication to their duties.

"The entire boarding team, and personnel here are commended for their extraordinary efforts and their aggressive pursuit of Coast Guard law enforcement and border security missions," said Mehling, "the dedication, pride and professionalism displayed by the crewmembers of the boarding team in keeping with the highest traditions of the United States Coast Guard."
